CRACKED ICE.

In the winter old farmer Al enjoys the sleighing and skating as much as anyone. But he always has some mishaps. He falls through the ice, and when Thomas Cat rescues him he is incased in a block of ice. While he is thawing, a polar bear teases him.

Again free of his ice coat, Al attempts to eat a frankfurter. The hot dog slips away from him and he chases it. Al catches the elusive morsel, sits down to enjoy a mouthful, only to discover that some pesky mice have tied a string and yanked it away.

The old farmer chases the pest and a gang of cats throw snowballs after him.
